

I PLACE
MY HANDS
IN YOURS

My Dear Lord,
Please remind me
when I forget Your graces
because I know I am lost without You.
I also know that You are giving me
everything within to find You.
Keep moving me through the many dark nights of soul
so I may stand for You
in greater love, compassion, and truth.

My heart breaks
when I feel the pain of others, my Lord.
I cannot imagine Your pain
as You are waiting for us to return to You.
Help me to become pure of heart,
help me to love unconditionally
unencumbered by illusions,
help me to give myself selflessly, abundantly.
Take me, use me. I am Your child.

When I was young I gave up on You,
but somehow my pain is helping me
to find my way back to You.
It has been a very long odyssey.
I long to feel Your Presence.

I place my hands in Yours with trust and surrender.

THE LADY
